FraudNY Update

Fraud, the Crime You Pay for

Compiled by the New York Alliance Against Insurance Fraud and distributed every other Wednesday

Thursday, July 18, 2019

Anesthesiologist in NY indicted for alleged role in health care scam

July 9, 2019, Albany, NY -- A New York anesthesiologist was arraigned today on an indictment charging her for her role in an alleged telemedicine conspiracy to submit fraudulent claims to Medicare, Medicare Part D plans and private insurance plans. Assistant Attorney General Brian A. Benczkowski of the Justice Department&…

more info > United States Department of Justice

DMV offers tips to prevent vehicle thefts statewide

July 8, 2019, Albany, NY -- The New York State Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) today marked national Vehicle Theft Prevention Month by urging consumers to take steps to protect their vehicles from being stolen. Summertime is the season when most vehicle thefts occur. New York State has seen a steady reduction in the number…

more info > New York State

Man stabbed 40 times for $1.2M, son wants lenience in New York

July 8, 2019, Brooklyn, NY -- A Brooklyn federal prosecutor whose father was hacked to death pleaded with a judge Monday to go easy on the killers — his own mother and uncle. Assistant US Attorney Philip Pilmar — whose wealthy businessman father, Howard Pilmar, was murdered by the greedy pair in 1996 — asked…

more info > New York Post

To subscribe to other insurance fraud publications and information services, visitInsuranceFraud.org/subscription

follow on Twitter | friend on Facebook | forward to a friend